This quotation is submitted in response to a telephone call from [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] on December 2, 1958. It is my understanding that the origin of this request is [REDACTED] and that the manuals would be used for his project only. I feel that the same manuals should be distributed to the project under the supply system of [REDACTED] also, since he has in his system the same amount of Mark III Hand Controls as [REDACTED]

It is my feeling that for a $50.00 increase in price, we would be able to furnish 200 manuals; and that both projects would be able to divide the cost between them.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
